

BSA WORKSHOP

CRIME PREVENTION MERIT BADGE

SATURDAY, February 1, 2014

Church of the Messiah, 51 N. State Street, Westerville, Ohio
8:00 am. - 1:00 p.m.

The Westerville Division of Police is pleased to offer the Boy Scouts of Arrowhead District a Crime Prevention Workshop. This is an opportunity to meet and talk with professionals on the prevention of crime in businesses, schools, and neighborhoods.

After you have purchased from the scout store and have read the merit badge book, "Crime Prevention", you can begin working on requirements #2, #4b, and #6a. If you bring these COMPLETED requirements with you to the workshop, you will be able to complete the remaining requirements. (Put your name on each requirement)

Additionally, YOU MUST BRING your Blue Merit Badge Card signed by your Scoutmaster.

Please wear your scout uniform.

Lunch will be provided at no cost.

Due to limited space this program is for scouts only . Parents and scoutmasters should drop off scouts at 8:00 a.m. and pickup at 1:00 p.m..

If you have any questions, contact Crime Prevention Specialist Preston Tartt at (614) 901-6490
